

Crieff Scotland

Crieff lies between the Highlands and the Lowlands and is within easy reach of Scottish main cities (Glasgow, Edinburgh, Dundee, etc). Surrounded by beautiful walking country, Crieff has many visitor attractions such as - At the south of the town traditional Crafts can be enjoyed at the Ceramic Experience (including porcelain painting), Crieff Visitors Centre and Stuart Crystal. In the town centre, paintings and applied art are exhibited at Aiton Fine Arts, and The Strathearn Gallery, while you can watch traditional confectionery being made at Gordon and Durward. Just west of the town, The Famous Grouse Experience is an exciting new interactive visitor centre that tells the story of one of Scotlands best known whiskies. For the active among us, Macrosty Park boasts a host of facilities such as tennis, putting, and trampolines all set in impressive mature parklands. Strathearn Recreation Centre offers a swimming pool and fitness suite, while the great outdoors beckon at Crieff Golf Club and Crieff Hydro's Strathearn Stables
